

Zoom Link

<https://bainbridgewa.zoom.us/j/83142637050>

Meeting ID: 831 4263 7050

Telephone: 1-253-205-0468

Purpose

To come together to understand why the Police and Municipal Court Building is being named and to utilize a variety of stakeholder engagement strategies, local historical resources, and other important partnerships to create a list of 3-5 names to recommend to the City Council for consideration of a formal name. This name should be in alignment with the City's values and criteria.

Participants:

- Adam Nebenzahl
- Anne Blair
- Dwight Sutton
- Kimi Kinoshita
- Dick Haugan

Absent

- Vicky Clayton
- Chasity Malatesta

Agenda

Introduction – Members of the Committee will introduce themselves.

ACTION: Information only.

Public Comment - The Committee will open public comment for members of the public to speak on the Naming of the police and municipal court building naming process, possible names, or comments germane to these topics.

ACTION: Paul Svornich spoke in support of naming the building the Ted Spearman Justice Center. Judge Robin Hunt spoke in support of naming the building the Ted Spearman Justice Center. Judge Sally Olsen submitted a letter to the committee in name the building after Judge Theodore Spearman.

Discussion – Committee can discuss the public comment and any narrowing of the group of names. Finally, committee will set a time for the subsequent meeting.

ACTION: The Committee selected 5 names for consideration for the City Council: Bainbridge Island Municipal Building or Police and Court Building; Community Justice Center; Madison Ave Justice Center; Safety and Justice Center; Ted Spearman Justice Center or Police and Court Center.

MEETING ADJOURNED – 6:20pm